IDOC Offenders and Partners Give to Indiana National Guard Relief Fund

The Indiana Department of Corrections (IDOC) presented Governor Mitch Daniels with a check for the Indiana National Guard Relief Fund in support of the Governor's 6th Annual Charity Ride. Religious Services Director Stephen Hall, Deputy Director David Liebel, and Community Corrections Director Mike Lloyd were on hand as Governor Daniels addressed the media and supporters before the commencement of the ride.

The Governor thanked the IDOC for their support expressed how moved he was when he learned that inmates from across the state had collectively raised money for this cause.

$8300 was donated to the Indiana National Guard Relief Fund. The money was collected through various offender organizations at multiple IDOC facilities and from the Department's partners in corrections, Aramark and Correctional Medical Services.
